Travel Information

Lansing, the capital of Michigan, can be reached by rail (Grand Trunk, Chesapeake and Ohio), air (Capital Airlines), or bus (Greyhound, Indian Trails, Shortway). There is bus connection to East Lansing, four miles east of Lansing, where Route 43 (Michigan Avenue) joins Route 16 (Grand River Avenue).

From the west (Route 43) the Music Building is reached by turning diagonally right just after the first traffic light within the East Lansing city limits. It is the first building on the left after a couple of dormitories. From the east (Route 16) the Music Building is reached by turning left at the first traffic light (Haslett Street). Turn right immediately and proceed about two-thirds of the way around the one-way Circle Drive. There is free parking south of the Music Building at all times; meter parking until 6:00 p.m. Saturday north of it.

Accommodations

The leading hotel in Lansing is the Hotel Olds, where rates are $6.00 - $7.00 for single rooms and $10.00 - $12.00 for rooms with twin beds. Other hotels are the Porter and the Roosevelt. However, a large service-club convention is scheduled for the same weekend as our meeting, and rooms in Lansing hotels and motels will be almost impossible to get. There are two desirable motels, about two miles east of East Lansing along Route 16, in which some rooms are being reserved for AMS and MLA members:

Motel Topper, 2662 East Grand River, East Lansing.
Double Bed: $5.00 single and $6.00 double.
Twin Beds: $8.00

Spartan Terrace Motel, 2227 East Grand River, East Lansing.
Double Bed: $5.00 single and $6.00 double.
Twin Beds: $7.00

Please make your reservations early, paying in advance. If the reservation is cancelled before the day of occupancy your money will be refunded.

Several excellent rooms may be available at the Kellogg Center on the University campus at $7.50 for a single room and $10.50 for a room with twin beds. For these, reservations must be made locally. Contact Paul Harder, Music Department, Michigan State University.

Breakfast and other meals may be had at the Union Cafeteria, which is near the Music Building.
