★★★★★ The original - and still the best - of the Saturday's Warrior recordings.., May 11, 2009

By Mark Terran (Salt Lake City, UT, USA) - See all my reviews

REAL NAME

This review is from: Saturday's Warrior (Audio CD)

It should be said first that fine as the book and lyrics certainly are, it may be Lex de Azevedo's musical score that finally made Saturday's Warrior the true phenomenon that it became. It really is good stuff -- especially as originally arranged by Azevedo and rendered, under his supervision, by the cast, chorus and musicians of the original 1974, Southern California stage production.

With its perfect cast (the Clinger Sisters, the Engemanns, Heather Young, Ric de Azevedo, Cam Clarke, et al), and Azevedo's original musical arrangement - as effective today as it was in 1974, by the way, and featuring a traditional keyboard/bass/drums instrumentation with Azevedo himself on keyboards, plus the rich harmonies of a live chorus - this digital re-master of the original 1974 soundtrack remains the definitive recording of this 35-year-old classic. It also is the most complete: one will not find the evocative "Voices" on other Saturday's Warrior recordings.
