

BMC INVESTMENTS

HALCYON – A HOTEL IN CHERRY CREEK NORTH IS NOW OPEN

Experience the Quintessential Hospitality and Local Character of Denver

August 8, 2016

Sage Hospitality and BMC Investments announces the opening of HALCYON, a Hotel in Cherry Creek today, an independent luxury hotel in the emerging Cherry Creek North neighborhood. The 154-room hotel welcomes guests to an experience of premier accommodations, locally curated programming,

Halcyon offers 6,500 total square feet of versatile meeting, event and banquet space. Whether you are planning a romantic wedding reception, a corporate conference or an important business meeting, Halcyon is an unforgettable event setting for up to 300 guests with flexible venue options and floor to ceiling windows.

Within the hotel, guests and locals can indulge in Halcyon's two distinctive culinary concepts – Departure Restaurant + Lounge and Quality Italian. Unique to Halcyon, guests will also have access to the Kitchen Counter. Replacing your standard check-in desk, the Kitchen Counter is equipped with hosts trained to assist with everything from daily guest arrivals to serving an Intelligentsia espresso beverage. Similar to visiting your friend's home, guests are encouraged to stop by Kitchen Counter and find comfort in a taste of the latest libations, whether a preferred local beer or sought after wine, and enjoy sweet or savory bites – all included in the guest's stay. The hyper-local and hyper-exclusive products of Kitchen Counter will be ever evolving.

Well-appointed, inviting, and modern – Halcyon effortlessly combines the ease of Colorado's lifestyle with the top-notch service and grace of a great hotel. "Halcyon is that friend's house in Colorado you've always wanted to visit," said General Manager, Cindy Bedan. "Guests who enter our hotel will feel the cultured comfort of the neighborhood and we could not be more excited to be bringing these elements of Cherry Creek's character to life for all to enjoy."

"This hotel is part of an incredible wave of growth in the Cherry Creek area," said Matt Joblon, principal and CEO of BMC Investments. "It's perfect for the guest looking for a true Colorado experience and a locally curated stay."

The guestrooms and suites offer an original blend of well-wrought design and welcoming gravitas, along with stylish simplicity and textured comforts. Each room infuses Colorado's atmospheric charm with natural elements and riffs on the American West. From the beckoning bed, to the marbled bath and oversized windows, the devil is in the details at Halcyon. The design of all public spaces and guest rooms is managed by AvroKO and JNS Design.

An urban retreat and a first in Cherry Creek North, Halcyon's rooftop bar Departure Elevated, and accompanying pool offers an escape from the world below, and a new look at the sky above. To further the poolside experience, full-service, luxury cabanas are available upon reservation. The expansive rooftop lounge is the new hotspot for guests and natives to delight in cocktails, and cuisine while cooling off from the Colorado sun.

Reservations can be made at www.halcyonhotelcherrycreek.com or 1-844-442-5296.